From the day and time that appears on your appointment you can register.

A very common error is to open the browser before the time indicated by the appointment. If you do not close all the tabs, it may show an error:

"The day and time of enrollment has expired or has not arrived."