I am a student. Can I have access to the UV software?

Can I access the software as a student at the University of Valencia?

Students and students of the Universitat de València can:
• Use the software in the computers of the classrooms intended for use.
• Request and use the software available in its catalog for use on a single personal computer.